"Rich text is brought to life by vivid illustrations that show emotion and detail."

"The series has natural messages in each book."

"My class absolutely loved it. They sat around my chair moving close and closer with every page."

Juan Castell and Aunt Sofia's Giant Book of Please, Thank You, Welcome

The earth is soon to have visitors from far away galaxies and everyone is getting ready to greet them as politely as they possibly can. Each country is working hard to help their people prepare by remembering manners and how to greet people in different ways. This valuable story offers an easy-to-learn introduction to basic words in French, Spanish, Indian and Chinese. A "First Language Dictionary".

Jimmy & Jane and the Tale of the Yellow Moon

In this colorful, humorous story, twins Jimmy and Jane lend a hand to their friends the Lunatrons, moon-dwelling creatures with unusual eating habits. Together they hold the secret to the moon's yellowish tinge visible in the dark night sky. But when the twins disrupt the Lunatrons' regular diet that once yellow tinge morphs into green, orange and an array of colors and patterns. This helpful story shows the value of teamwork and friendship.

The Pennydale Zoo Great Talent Contest

A fun visit to the Pennydale Zoo brings even more excitement when Juniper Mouse discovers the Great Talent Contest. Is there enough time to practice? Will they all just laugh at him? There are singing camels, a giraffe for a magician, a balancing elephant, a nut juggling turtle and many more. Under the guidance of head judge Big Paws Galore the consequences are hilarious. This creative story shows that with practice and determination anything is possible.

Normal Nina and the Magic Box

Normal Nina knows all about wanting to be different. She is just a regular person that people don't notice or appreciate for the regular things that she does. So, when Nina discovers a strange magic box and meets the blue-masked genie, she knows exactly what her three wishes will be. And there's nothing normal about them at all! This delightful story shows that exciting adventures can be fun but being normal has its good points too.

About the Author

After a successful career in finance, Ian Sadler has turned his time and attention to one of his most rewarding hobbies—creating humorous, rhyming stories for children. He brings to life his colorful, fun-loving characters and overlays gentle messages for daily living in the family and at school through his publishing company with a presence both in the United States and the United Kingdom.

About the Illustrator

Following on from her early love of drawing and painting, artist Adrienne Brown studied Graphic Design & Illustration at the University of Kansas, receiving her BFA in 1992. She has been a graphic designer and freelance artist for 25 years. Through the years of many illustrations and many graphic design projects, she still has the inner "tingle" for illustrating children's books.
